

PMO Manager

Would you like to work closely with the CFO of an international technology company on integration of acquisitions?

The PMO Manager must be creative and enjoy working with a leadership team that is results-driven and international. The ideal individual will have the ability to monitor and manage multiple simultaneous merger workstreams and sub-projects in close collaboration with senior line management. The PMO Manager will have the ability to work independently on projects, from conception to completion, and must be able to work under pressure at times to handle a wide variety of activities and confidential matters with discretion.

The position

PMO Manager is a newly established position to support the CFO and senior management team in integrating recent and future acquisitions. This position represents a stepping stone to a future line management position.

You will be based in our Nærum office, but you will frequently travel to other locations in Europe.

Key responsibilities

- Build and maintain project management office with timely and transparent follow-up of merger and synergy projects
- Prepare on-going internal communication related to merger activities
- Pro-actively identify areas for improvement in merger implementation and directly support line management in project execution
- Prepare ad-hoc business analysis using Microsoft BI
- Preparation of management presentations for internal and external target groups
- Personally, drive special projects for CFO and President

Your qualifications

- Two+ years' experience from management consulting or similar
- Master's degree in business, finance, communication or similar
- Very strong project management skills that reflect ability to perform and prioritize multiple tasks seamlessly with excellent attention to detail
- Strong interpersonal skills and the ability to build relationships with stakeholders, including management team, sales and marketing managers and UK based mother company
- Demonstrated proactive approaches to problem-solving with strong decision-making capability
- Emotional maturity
- Highly resourceful team-player, with the ability to also be extremely effective independently
- Proven ability to handle confidential information with discretion, be adaptable to various competing demands, and demonstrate the highest level of customer/client service and response
- Demonstrated ability to achieve high performance goals and meet deadlines in a fast paced environment
- Forward looking thinker, who actively seeks opportunities and proposes solutions
- Excellent communication skills in English and Danish and preferably German
